BLANDFORD MEMORIAL

Tablet Unveiled in the Old Church in Honor of Heroes of the Revolution.

PAID A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE

Little Miss Elizabeth Watkins Drewry Drew the Flag That Veiled Tablet From View.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 12.-Old Blandford Church was filled with patriotic men and women at noon to-day when little Elizabeth Watkins Drewry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Drev ry, of this city, pulled aside the American flag and unveiled the beautiful memo rial tablet crected in the wall of the church by the Frances Bland Randolph Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to the memory of the heroes Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to the memory of the heroes of the Revolution. This is the first memorial to be placed in the church. On the rostrum, which was decorated with flowers and American flags, were Mayor Jones, master of ceremonies; Dr. Bunting, of St. Paul's Church, who delivered the opening and closing prayer, and Rev. J S. Foster, of Tabb Street Presbyterian Church, who delivered one of the most finished orations that has been heard in Petersburs. Just as little Miss. Drewry pulled aside the flag a triple quartette of selected male and femae voices sang "My Country, Tis of Thee." After the oration by Mr. Foster they sang "The Star Spangled Banner," and at the close of the ceremonies, "Auld Lang Syne."

On the rostrum with the speakers were: Mrs. E. W. Finch, regent; Mrs. W. B. McIlwaine, first vice-regent; Mrs. W. F., Drewry, recording secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Watkins Drewry.

EEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE.

Mr. Foster paid a beautiful tribute to the heroes who planned, upheld and achieved "the independence of the American people. Thomas Jefferson," he said, "wrote the Declaration of Independence not only for the American people, but for the world. The work of the heroes

"wrote the Declaration of Independence not only for the American people, but for the world. The work of the heroes of the Revolution is a world-wide one." Referring to the placing of a monument like this in a church, he sald: "Religion and patriotism are closely allied. Patriotism is universal." He then spoke of the significance of the colors in the flag—red signifying sacrifice; white, purity of purpose; blue, peace, serenity. The monument is the work of the Charles M. Walsh marble works in Petersburg, and is universally admired. The inscription was written by ex-Congressman F. R. Lassiter, of this city, and is as follows:

man F. R. Lassiter, of this city, and is as follows:

In Memory of the Patriots
Who Planned, upheld and achieved the Independence of the United States of America, 1776-1782.

The Tablet is of beauty and finish, and is seven by four feet. At the top is the American shield, from which is suspended a laurel wreath. At the bottom is the society's insignia, a distaff.

A brilliant reception was given by the chapter to-night in the parlors of the Petersburg Club. About two hundred were present by special invitation, and they were received and entertained by the officers of the chapter and their friends.

ELECTION SURPRISE.

The Steamer Tourist is Laid Up

for Repairs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 12.—
Among the many surprises in the local elections in this section was the defeat in Caroline county of Dr. John D. Butler in Caroline county of Dr. John D. Butler, as supervisor of Bowling Green district. Dr. Butler has been a member of the board of supervisors for years, and at present is its chairman. Notwithstanding he has reached the advanced age of eight he has reached the advanced age of eighty-three years, he was a candidate for re-election, but was defeated by a small majority by Mr. E. G. Allen. In spite of his advanded age, Dr. Butler is still leading an active life and practicing his profession.

The contract on the new Main Street sewer in this city has been awarded to George W. Heflin, and he has started a large force of laborers to work.

The crop of tobacco in Caroline county this year was very large, but the planters are much discouraged at the prospects for good prices, and will put in a smaller acreage next year. The fine pects for good prices, and will put in a smaller acreage next year. The fine prices for the past few years in this section has led to an overproduction. The steamer Tourist, of the People's Line, is at Norfolk undergoing repairs, and her trips on the Rappahannock River between this point and Urbanna are being made by substitute boats.

Mr. P. P. Nalle, a prominant citizen of Culpeper county, now over eighty-eight years old, is here on business. Mr. Nalle made his first trip to this city from Culpeper seventy-six years ago, and has been coming regularly at intervals since. Though nearly ninety years old. Mr. Nalle is as alert and businesslike in his methods as a man of sixty years. The members of Flat Run Baptist Church, in Orange county, will meet next Church, in Orange county, will meet next Sunday for the purpose of calling a pas-tor to the church.

City County. City County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BHIRLEY, VA., Nov. 12.—There were exciting times on Upper Shirley plantation Menday last, when Mr. Doc. Sears, the well known butcher of Richmond, arrived on the place to get the remainder of the bunch of cattle which he had bought from Mr. H. S. Saunders some days since. The cattle being too wild to ship, had to be shot in the pasture field and dressed on the spot. Five head were disposed of to this manner.

be shot in the pasture field and dressed on the spot. Five head were disposed of to this manner.

Mr. E. A. Saunders, Jr., of Richmond, has recently had a fine flock of forty head of Angora goats sent to his farm, Buckland, in Charles City county. These goats are considered quite valuable from the breeder's standpoint, as both their firsh and fleeces are much in demand. Should Mr. Saunders' experiment succeed, no doubt many farmers of this section will follow his example.

Mr. John Harrison and his mother, Mrs. Caroline Harrison, have returned to their home after spending the summer and fall in the mountains of Virginia.

MONUMENT AT BOYLTON

A Movement to Revive Interest in Its Completion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., Nov. 12.—The monument erected here in the courthouse square to the memory of the Confederate dead of Mecklenburg has never been completed, so far as placing a statue on the meanument.

dead of Mecklenburg has never been completed, so far as placing a statue on the monument.

Commander E. B. Goode, of the L. A. Armistead Camp, C. V., is very much interested in raising funds for this purpose. The Monument Committee has a small sum of money on hand, but it is entirely inadequate to even begin the work. The monument was built some five or six years ago, and is a handsome structure, and when completed will oe an ornament to the square, and a fitting memorial to the brave and fallen heroes.

Commander Goode is devising plans to try and interest the people of the county in taking hold of the matter, and push it to an early completion.

The tobacco market here has been more active recently, and prices have improved somewhat, but still the great bulk of the tobacco crop is in the hands of the farmers. The crop made in Mecklenburg is a splendid one, and if prices were anything like as good as they were last year the crop would bring an immense sum of money. The people will not sell at present prices unless forced to do so.

THE GAME LAW.

Attempt of Game Warden to Enforce New Statute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, VA., November 12.-An effort was made yesterday by the local winchester, va., November E.-An game warden to arrest Hon, W. B. Cornwell for an alleged infraction of the Virginia game law. Mr. Cornwell, who was one time the prosecuting attorney of Hampshire county, W. Va., and represented that county in the West Virginia State Senate, but who is now a prospective resident of Fairmont, in the same State, was the guest last Tuesday of Mr. H. S. Larrick and hunted with him on his farm, near Middetown, this county. The local hunters construed his action as a violation of the game law, and had the game warden prepare a warrant.

Mr. Cornwell defied them to make an issue of the affair, stating that he would carry the case, if necessary, to the highest tribunal. Mr. Larrick claimed that as Mr. Cornwell was his guest and had hunted upon his land, that gentleman was not violating the law.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gwathmey, of Richmond, visited her brother, Rev. J. Ryland Murdock, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Mr. Gwathmey is purser on the steamer Pocahontas, which plies upon the James River.

EXPOSITION WILL BE HELD

Great Jamestown Mass-Meeting, at Which Forty Thousand Was Subscribed in a Jiffy.

ELEVEN CONGRESSMEN

National Law-Makers and John Temple Graves Lend Their Tongues to Great Project.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA. Nov. 12.—Forty thou sand dollars was subscribed to-night within five minutes to the Jamestown Expo sition. The free will offerings were made at the great mass-meeting which packed Armory Hall, the city's largest auditorium, to the doors. There were present fully five thousand people, men and was mer, and the keynote of the evening was

"The exposition must succeed." Congressmen from eleven States were present, and the orator of the occasion was John Temple Graves, of Georgia. His appeal to the patriotism of Virginia elici ted a subscription of $15,000 from Thomas S. Southgate to start with. Other sub-scriptions in amounts from one to five thousand deliars rapidly followed. The di-thousand dollars rapidly followed. The directors now have no doubt but that the exposition will be held.

A FINE SPEECH.

Judge Wade, the sole Democratic representative from Iowa, made a speech of signal interest. He told of the great opportunity Virginia had, not alone to show the great West whence she came but to acquaint her with the manifold advantages Tidewater has to offer in exchange for what the West has to offer promoting both immigration and industry.

Here the granaries of the western world, the representative said, might empty themselves into the holds of the ships of all nations to be transported to ships of all nations to be transported to the end of the earth, yet the great West with never a thought of what this section of Virginia means to the rest of the courtry has gone on fits triumphant way.

The other speakers of note included James R. Mann, of Chicago, and James M. Robertson, of Indiana, each made an earnest plea for the exposition.

JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES.

The star effort of the evening, however, was the speech of John Temple Graves, of Georgia. His reference to his predecessors was the signal for tremendous applause when he declared that in Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, the States from which the assemblage had just heard, the negro, under "certain conditions," is as consistently and scientifically lynched as elsewhere. It was borne in upon the people of Virginia that to fail in their undertaking now will be to fall forever.

The speaker met with an ovation at the conclusion of, his address. Mr. Graves urged that Virginia, must not fall in this undertaking.

He, as well as all the other speakers, exploited the great idea of a naval display, which will probably be the great spectacle of the exposition.

Will Have Treaty Ready.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The State Department to-day received a cablegram from Acting Consul-General Ehrman, at Panamu, saying that Philippe Brunau-Varilla, the Panamu minister to Washington, is the person charged by his government with power to negotiate a canal treaty with the government of the United States, and that Messrs. Boyd and Amador, the comnissioners, who sailed two days ago for Washington, were charged with other

M. Brunau-Varilla is disposed to put forth every effort to hasten the treaty negotiations. There is some proublity that the new treaty will be ready for transmission to the Senate before Christ
